

Join us for a demonstration in Iraqi cooking & help support the Iraqi Student Project

COOKING WITH
FARAH

Saturday, July 25, 2009
11:00 am to 2:00 pm

St. Nicholas Church
806 Ridge Avenue
Evanston, Illinois

Oldershaw Hall Kitchen

Farah Abraham

is an Iraqi Student Project scholar and an excellent cook.
She has graciously volunteered to share her skills.
For only $35, participants will learn how to prepare a three-course Iraqi meal & then dine together while talking about Iraqi family culture.

Class size is limited to 20

Please register by July 18th with Trina Bennett at marieb2007@gmail.com or call 847.807.9274

The Iraqi Student Project (ISP) assists talented young people, whose lives and education have been disrupted by the war in Iraq, by providing undergraduate studies in an exchange for a pledge to return and rebuild their war-torn country. DePaul University - along with 30 other undergraduate institutions generously provides four-year tuition waivers.

To learn more about the Iraqi Student Project visit - www.iraqidepaul.org or for information on the ISP in general see www.iraqistudentproject.org

SPICE DONATION - THE SPICE HOUSE OF EVANSTON