

Top: Train arrives at Ashland Station from downtown.

Bottom: View of the Ashland Station from street.

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

To get to Union Park, take the CTA “green line” (westbound “toward Harlem”) elevated train to the Ashland stop. $2.00

To go from Union Park to Federal Plaza, take the “green line” elevated train back downtown (east/southbound “toward 63rd) and get off at the Clark/Lake transfer station. Follow the signs that take you down to the subway where you want the “blue line” train (south “toward Forest Park). Get off at the Jackson stop. $2.00

Accessibility: All three stops mentioned above have elevators. Clark/Lake and Jackson also have escalators.

For detailed information about accessing these trains from the other lines, go to www.transitchicago.com

Clark/Lake station lets you transfer between the “el” train and the subway at no charge.

